

WORD ALIVE PRESS

131 Cordite Road
Winnipeg, MB R3W 1S1
Phone: 866.967.3782
Fax: 800.352.9272
www.wordalivepress.ca

Re: Destiny's Hands – New title by Violet Nesdoly

Dear Book Reviewer,

But wasn't that dangerous? What if he took it off only to find that Yahweh's power wasn't supreme? Would angering Ptah rob him of his skill?

Then again, maybe his talents had nothing to do with Ptah or any Egyptian god. He'd had skill in his hands for as long as he could remember. Maybe it was the way Yahweh had made him.

He thought back and realized that this fight for his loyalty had been going on for weeks. As it raged now in the oppressive darkness, he knew it was time to make a decision. Did he dare remove the amulet? Was he ready?

–From Destiny's Hands

Word Alive Press is thrilled to introduce Destiny's Hands, by Violet Nesdoly. This title is currently being carried in most major Christian Bookstores across Canada and is available to order through Amazon and Chapters/Indigo bookstores.

In Destiny's Hands, author Violet Nesdoly takes an interesting, yet, believable twist on the Exodus account. In her novel, the reader is quickly drawn to young Bezalel, a carver and goldsmith and how his life is rapidly changed as the world around him is threatened by the sudden return of Moses. Will his trade be able to save him? More importantly, will he be able to let Sebia know how he actually feels about her?

Thank you for your consideration of Destiny's Hands for review. Please do not hesitate to contact me to schedule an interview.

Sincerely,

Jen Jandavs-Hedlin
Publishing Consultant
Word Alive Press
Ph: 866.967.3782
Email: jen@wordalivepress.ca